Honorable Immigration Judge, U.S. Department of Justice

My name is Jackeline Carolina López de Vásquez, of age, Salvadorian, and I currently reside in Quezaltepeque, La Libertad Norte, El Salvador.

I write this declaration in support of my friend Ana Noemy Martinez Marroquin, whom I've known since 2020, the year our friendship began, which allowed me to be aware of her life and the circumstances she faced in El Salvador.

My friend Ana Noemy lived alone in a rural canton of the Municipality of Nejapa, an area that used to be known by the presence of gangs. Fear and insecurity were constant in her community, her neighbors had already been victims of harassment and robbery when gangsters still controlled the area, but when the state of exception went into effect everything changed, and it was the police and military soldiers who were now monitoring and controlling the area. On one occasion they entered Noemy's home without a clear and legal justification, her only "offense" was living alone in a gang-stigmatized area.

Fore these reasons I consider her decision to leave El Salvador was a necessary measure to protect her physical and emotional integrity. Based on the years I've known her and her situation, I believe her testimony is true and honest, I declare under the penalty of perjury that the information provided is true.

Date: January 26, 2026.

Honorable Juez de inmigración, U.S. Departamento de justicia Mi nombre es Jackeline Carolina López de Vásquez, mayor de edad, de nacionalidad Salvadoreña y actualmente resido en Quezaltenango La Libertad Norte, El Salvador.

Escribo esta declaración en apoyo a mi amiga Ana Noemy Martinez Marroquin a quien conozco desde 2020, año en el que comenzó nuestra amistad que me permitió tener conocimiento de su vida y circunstancias que enfrentó en El Salvador.

Mi amiga Ana Noemy vivía sola en un cantón rural del municipio de Nejapa, zona que antes era conocida por la presencia de pandillas el temor y la inseguridad eran una constante en su cantón las vecinas ya habían sido víctimas de acoso y robo cuando los pandilleros aún controlaban la zona, pero cuando el regimen de excepción entro en vigor todo cambio y era la policia y los soldados militares los que ahora vigilaban y tenian el control, en una ocasión entraron a la casa de Noemy sin una justificación clara y legal, su unica "falta" fue vivir sola en una zona estigmatizada por pandillas.

Por estas razones considero que su decisión de salir de El Salvador fue una medida necesaria para proteger su integridad física y emocional. En base a los años que llevo de conocerla y conocer su situación, creo que su testimonio es verdadero y honesto, declaro bajo pena de perjurio que la información proporcionada es cierta.

Daniel Armando Martinez Marroquin

Through this letter, I leave a record of an incident experienced by myself, my sister, and her ex-partner.

I consider it appropriate to respectfully and calmly relate the incident that occurred one morning at the beginning of 2024 while I was at the family residence. For personal reasons, my sister Nohemy Martinez was the only one who lived there; however, my presence the night before was both coincidental and decisive, as it made me a direct witness to a procedure that left doubts, fear, and worries in our family.

Without any prior notice, a large group of police officers got into our family home under the excuse of a "search".

As I remember, there were approximately eight officers inside the house and some more outside, completely surrounding the residence. The scene was intimidating, and it was difficult for us to feel calm, as it didn't look like an ordinary procedure, despite the fact that it was a place where there weren't, or aren't, any incidents, or any resistance.

The police officers acted with arrogance, showing no regard for privacy, as I was asleep and it was my sister who woke me. She was in underwear, and so was her ex-partner, who was positioned against the wall with his hands at the back of his head, the same position I was told to adopt. The emotional state or the dignity of those of us inside weren't taken into consideration. Personal documents and phones were demanded, and my sister had to retrieve them, because neither I nor her ex-partner were allowed to move. My sister asked to put on some clothes, which they allowed, while a policeman was in her room watching and parts of the house, throwing objects around, lifting beds, etc.

We were subjected to an insistent interrogation, even though clear and coherent answers were given.

They asked my sister questions because her tattoos were visible when she was in her underwear, demanding that she show every single one of them. This led to treatment that I consider denigrating and psychologically aggressive, she was exposed, intimidated and subjected to questioning with the evident intention of confusing and leaving her vulnerable, completely disregarding her integrity, her right to privacy, and the fact that she has no criminal record. Her documents were also checked.

Witnessing how my sister was emotionally and physically exposed wasn't a pleasant experience, not only for her, but also for me as her brother, and as a Salvadorian citizen. I remember that my grandmother called me by phone, since part of our family lived in the house across the street, and they noticed what was going on and called my grandmother. The psychological impact remains, and the feeling of being impotent before power exercised without any humanity is something impossible to forget. The concern was not limited to that day, it expanded because my sister spent time alone in the house, where she couldn't feel safe, since the police broke in through the window and easily opened the door.

My sister also mentioned that she had been interrogated by the police on previous occasions, when she was on her way home at night, and that scared her.

I understand the national context and the reason why extraordinary measures were taken in the name of security; however, I believe that no circumstance justifies the violation of human rights or the use of power without judgment. Through this letter, I express the impotence experienced and raise my voice respectfully, but absolutely convinced, so that events like these are neither minimized nor normalized.
Thank you.

Date: February 6, 2026.

Daniel Armando Martínez Marroquín.

Por este medio dejo constancia de un hecho vivido. Por mi persona, mi hermana, y su ex pareja. Considero relatar con respeto y seriedad el suceso que ocurrió una mañana a inicios del 2024 lo me encontraba en la vivienda familiar, por motivo personales mi hermana Nohemy Martínez era quien únicamente habitaba en dicho lugar; sin embargo la noche anterior mi presencia fue casual y determinante, pues me convirtió en testigo directo de un procedimiento que dejó en dudas, temor preocupación a nuestra familia. Sin previo aviso un grupo numeroso de agentes policiales ingreso a la vivienda familiar. bajo la figura de un "cateo"; según mi recuerdo dentro de la casa se encontraban aproximadamente ocho agentes, mientras que en el exterior había otros más, rodeando completamente la casa. La escena era intimidante, y difícil de sentirnos tranquilos, ya que no parecía un procedimiento normal, a pesar que es un lugar donde no existían, ni existen antecedentes, ni resistencia alguna. Los agentes policiales se dirigían con prepotencia alguna sin ~~embargo~~ con la intimidación por la intimidación ya que yo me encontraba dormido y fue mi hermana quien me despertó ella se encontraba en ropa interior y su ex pareja también, quien permanecía contra la pared y con sus manos en la cabeza misma posición fui indicado a realizar. El estado emocional o la dignidad de quienes nos encontramos dentro, no fueron válidos para nosotros se exigieron documentos personales y teléfonos, quien tuvo que buscarlos mi hermana, porque mi persona y su ex pareja no podíamos movernos, mi hermana pidió ponerse algo de ropa a lo que accedieron mientras un policía estaba dentro de su cuarto observando revisando cada espacio de la casa, tirando objetos

Levantando camas etc.
Fuimos sometidos a interrogatorio insistente, aun cuando se brindaban respuestas claras y coherentes, así mismo. Hacían preguntas a mi hermana, por el hecho que sus tatuajes sean notorios cuando se encontraba en ropa interior pidiendo que mostrara cada uno de ellos. Lo que derivó en un trato que considero denigrante y psicológicamente agresivo, su persona fue expuesta, intimidada y sometida a cuestionamientos con una evidente intención de confundir y vulnerar, ignorando por completo su integridad, su derecho a la intimidad y el echo de no contar con ningún antecedente delictivo, por sus documentos también fueron revisados. Presenciar como mi hermana fue expuesta, emocional y físicamente. Fue una experiencia no grata, no solo para ella, sino también para mí como hermano, y como Ciudadano salvadorino. Recuerdo que mi abuela me llamó por teléfono dado que en la casa de enfrente vivía parte de la familia quienes se dieron cuenta de lo sucedido y llamaron a mi abuela. El impacto psicológico permanece, y la sensación de impotencia frente a un poder ejercido sin humanidad es algo que no se olvida. La preocupación no fue durante ese día, sino se expandió por el echo que mi hermana estaba sola en la casa en la cual no se podía sentir segura, por la presencia policial entro por la ventana y abrió la puerta fácilmente. Mi hermana también comentó que en ocasiones anteriores ya había sido interrogada por los policías, mientras se dirigía a casa por la noche y eso dio ocasión a temor.

Comprendo el contexto nacional y la razón por la cual se adoptaron medidas extraordinarias en nombre de la seguridad; Sin embargo, considero que ninguna circunstancia justifica la vulneración de derechos humanos, ni el uso del poder sin criterio. Con esta carta expreso la impotencia vivida y alzar una voz desde el respeto. Pero con absoluta convicción, para que hechos como estos no sean minimizados ni normalizados.

Gracias.

Through this letter, I declare under my word of honor that I've personally and closely known my partner Ana Noemy Martinez Marroquin since September 2024.

During the course of our relationship, I have been able to gain a deep understanding of her personal, family, and social history. My partner has explained to me in detail the difficult circumstances that she faced during the last months she spent in her country of origin, which put her physical and emotional integrity at risk.

I am aware the reasons why Ana Noemy Martinez Marroquin was forced to leave her country. Such reasons include fear, actions by the police authority, lack of freedom of speech, and, to some extent, feeling unsafe at her own home.

I wish to state for the record that I consider Ana Noemy Martinez Marroquin an honest, hardworking person with clear convictions, who speaks out against the injustices when they arise. Her asylum application is not based on economic reasons, but rather on real need for safety due to the insecurity she faced in her country of origin. This letter is written voluntarily for the purpose of supporting and confirming the veracity of the facts that my partner has stated. I remain available for any additional information deemed necessary. Thank you. -----//signature//-----
